Electric Light Matters.

This Electric and Water company of this city is making an effort to introduce some of the later inventions in electric appliances into the homes of our people. These consist of electric heaters, electric curling irons, heaters, warming mats, and contrivances of a like nature.

The electric flat iron is not exactly the kind of an implement that one woman supposed it was. Just turn on the switch and let the iron do the work, while the lady of the house was in the parlor entertaining a series of afternoon callers. The iron is only heated by electricity, and the woman does the rest.

During a conversation with Mr. Kordemat, the manager of the plant, on Monday, that gentleman stated that the company had been installing meters as rapidly as it was possible to buy them, and that when these were pretty well distributed over the city it was the intention to give day current wherever there were lights so as to encourage the use of the day current. Without the meter it would be impossible to do this, as there are many people who would allow lights to burn rather more than they paid for if there was no meter on at all times.

To illustrate the difference that is made by the installation of meters, Mr. Kordemat cited the fact that while some five hundred lamps had been installed during the past summer, the load on the engine at the plant was not as heavy this fall as it was a year ago, and the income of the plant was greater. If these results can be brought about by putting only a portion of the city on meters, it is evident that there is still a lot of room for improvement.

Some people who have been in the habit of allowing their lights to burn all night and at other unnecessary times strenuously object to being placed on a meter, but those who are economical and have the welfare of the company at heart, have no objection whatever.

Gordon and Bennett's Production of The Holy City.

The production of "The Holy City" to be given at the Grand Opera House Saturday afternoon and evening, Dec. 2nd, will be an agreeable surprise even to those who expect the most from the play, and the presentation will be one that will live for years and receive constantly increasing patronage and praise at the hands of the public. It is certainly a daring attempt to give a play, founded on some of the most stirring and tender incidents in the holy Word, and only by the most careful avoidance of anything like sacrilege, could the play be made a success. But this has been accomplished by the author and the dialogue does not breathe a single word but what is pure and elevating in its tendencies. The play is founded on the incidents of the biblical story just previous to, and immediately after, the crucifixion and the scene on Calvary is shown in a tableau after the painting by Michael Angelo. The presence of Christ is frequently referred to, but obviously it would be impractical and offensive to attempt to represent the Master on the stage, and this is not done. But many of those intimately associated with Christ during his time on earth, are presented with a fidelity to the best conceptions of their characters and appearance, and the result is a play which is absorbing in interest and elevating in its teachings.

Great care has certainly been shown in the selection of the play, and the leading parts will be taken by artists of exceptional ability, who will give to the portrayal that skill and intelligent conception which makes an enjoyable performance. The entire presentation is under the personal supervision of Clarence Bennett, the author of the play who himself appears as "John the Baptist."

The costumes and stage accessories will be truly magnificent in every detail, and the costumes especially will be modeled the historical records of the times in which the play is supposed to be given. The barbaric splendors of the court of Herod are contrasted with the simple costumes of the fishermen, Galileans and followers of the Son of God.

Clever Graft is Worked.

The following from the Vernon County Leader tells of a smooth graft that is being worked in nearby counties. The leader states that the farmers may be headed this way and their game being a "good" one is one that would catch the average man. The graft is worked something like this:

"One of these operators goes to a farm house with a patent feed cooker, and insists on putting it up and cooking some feed for the hogs or cattle. The cooker is really very meritorious, and the farmer is greatly impressed with it. An attempt is then made to sell him the sole rights for his country. This of course, invariably causes a balk in the business and the victim begins to look suspicious on the enterprise.

"The first offer made to the farmers victimized at several places, was fifty dollars, and he refused to have anything to do with it. The agent then came down to forty-five dollars and later to forty dollars.

Finally, apparently giving up the matter, the agent asked permission to leave the cooker for a day and another man arrived at the house, and getting the farmer out says: "Say, I understand that you have purchased the right to sell a feed cooker in this county. I will give you twenty-five dollars for that right." This is said in a businesslike, eager manner, and at the same time the fellow pulls out a roll of money as if ready to hand over the money at once. "The natural result is that the farmer, seeing a chance to make some easy money on his own source, and paying the fellow off, makes an appointment for a day or two later.

"The following morning the first fellow drives into the yard and with ceremony starts to load the cooker into the wagon. The farmer goes out and after the usual greetings, states that he has decided to take the cooker after all, and in one instance one of the neighboring counties actually paid over the money and the cooker.

"The second party failed to keep his appointment, and the farmer still has the cooker. It is thought it is not patented, as there is no mark on it to indicate an owner.

Have a New Building

The editor of the Tribune acknowledges the receipt of a copy of the Weekly Journal, published at Macon, Miss., "the only negro home print paper in east Mississippi." In the paper is an account of the dedication of a new building belonging to the Natchez Industrial Society, which is under the supervision of S. J. Hunter. Mr. Hunter is well known to a number of our citizens, having been here on two occasions, obtaining aid for his school. According to the Journal they had some very impressive services at the dedication, but the article does not tell the size of the new building nor what it is to be used for.

Free to All Ministers.

I will send one bottle of Warner's White Wine of Tar—the best cough medicine on earth—free to all ministers who will recommend it to their friends after giving it a fair trial. Address, Dr. U. D. Warner, Coldwater, Mich.

SCHOOL OFFICERS

Meeting Held in This City Last Wednesday Proves Most Successful.

The meeting of school officers held in this city last Wednesday was a most successful one in every respect. There was a large attendance of school officers, indicating that they were interested in the matter and were anxious to see and hear what there was to be found out along these lines. There was something over one hundred and fifty in attendance, and there was hardly a school district in the country that was not represented by one or more officers from the district.

The meeting was called to order by County Superintendent Robert Morris, who addressed a few words to those assembled, explaining the purposes of the meeting and the benefits that were expected to accrue from an annual convention of this sort.

One of the principal speakers of the day was L. W. Wood, state rural school inspector. Mr. Wood gave a very interesting talk about rural schools and their needs. Mr. Wood is well informed on the subject and was able to give some practical advice as to the sanitary conditions of the rural schools. The conditions in some of the rural schools of the county have been very poor, partly thru the ignorance of the school officers and partly thru the carelessness of those who have the matters in charge. During the past few years these conditions have been greatly improved, and the indications are that the conditions will continue better and better until things have become as near ideal as it is possible to get them.

There were also addresses by R. B. Johns, principal of the Marathon County agricultural school, Prof. M. H. Jackson and Miss Etta Michels, of the Wood County Training School.

Civil Service Position.

The State Civil Service Commission is now ready to receive applications from persons desiring positions as unskilled laborers. Address the Secretary of the State Civil Service Commission, Madison, Wisconsin, for application blanks and information. There are between 350 and 400 permanent positions in the labor class in the state at large. Persons residing in any state institution may make application in person at such institution instead of writing to the Civil Service Commission.

The labor class includes all unskilled laborers such as farm hands, gardeners, barn men, teamsters, house servants, as well as assistants to laundresses, seamstresses, butchers, painters, tailors, shoemakers, cooks, etc. An applicant for a position in the labor class will not be required to undergo a scholastic examination. Acceptance or rejection of such applicant will depend upon the reports of the former employers, and his own statement made under oath in his application paper.

Death of J. B. Hasbrouck.

Joseph B. Hasbrouck, one of the old settlers of Grand Rapids, passed away at his home on the east side on Sunday morning after an illness of considerable length. The cause of his death was due to a general breaking down of the system, on account of old age, and he has been confined to the house for a long time past, and has gradually grown weaker in spite of medical aid. It has been known for some time that he could not survive for any great length of time, but he was not expected to die so soon as he did. Mr. Hasbrouck can certainly be numbered among the oldest settlers in this part of the state, having come here in 1846, a place which time has made his home here. The many changes that he had witnessed in the two generations that he has lived here can only be imagined by the younger ones.

Mr. Hasbrouck was born in Ullster County, New York, on the eighth of November, 1819, and was consequently 86 years old at his last birthday. He came from New York stock, and the name of Hasbrouck can be found among the early settlers of this country, long before the United States gained its freedom from England. Mr. Hasbrouck came to Grand Rapids in 1846, and in 1856 he was married to Miss Elen Johnson, then a resident of Wauwatosa. Of this marriage there are five surviving children, they being Henry Hasbrouck of Arkansas, Amos Hasbrouck of this city, Mrs. Anna Riche of Neshanic, Mrs. Lina Corvian of Neshanic, Mrs. Eliza Hasbrouck of this city, and Mrs. Mary Ann of this city. Mrs. Hasbrouck died some four years ago.

The funeral occurs this afternoon at two o'clock from the house of services being conducted by the Rev. Fred Staff. The deceased was a member of the Odd Fellows lodge, and they take charge of the funeral.

Drawing Close Lines.

The postoffice department is getting very particular nowadays concerning what the newspapers publish concerning railroads and games of chance of all kinds. Many years ago a ruling was made against the publishing of lottery advertisements. This was done because of the widespread popularity of the Louisiana lottery, into which misguided people were won't to put a part of their earnings at regular intervals. The owners of the lottery were getting rich, in fact making a fortune every year at the expense of the general public, and the postoffice authorities thought it would be a good thing to forbid them the use of the mails. While it might not stop the evil, the government, at least, would cease to be a party to the swindle.

Since then the lines have gradually been drawn closer until now it is not even permissible to publish the name of the lucky person at a church fair or a card party. If Mrs. O'Flaherty entertains a party of her friends at a pink tea and winds up the evening with a friendly game of whist, a shoving mug with a blue ribbon tied in the handle, we are not allowed to chronicle the fact. Some people may think that this is rather severe, but there is nothing like sticking right to the law. If the law is not a good one, repeal it, but do not break it.

Ministers of the gospel are taking the matter up and preaching against the holding of lottery schemes at the churches and in the church fair, claiming that the example set by the older ones of the church cannot help but have an evil effect on the minds of the children who are brought in contact with these things.

Predict Beell Champion.

Buffalo Express:—No one who saw Beell toss Parr about for two straight falls in 27, and eight minutes at Concert Hall last night, doubted that he had seen a wrestler—a high class athlete and a man who, from now on, despite his light weight, must be reckoned with in future scrambling for the American championship. Beell, as he strode onto the mat, looked the ideal athlete, his trim waist swinging a most formidable pair of shoulders. He weighed about 160, and looked fit to wrestle until the dawn broke.

Richard K. Fox, Jr., son of the proprietor of the Fox Gazette, New York and London, was in Milwaukee last week and in an interview with a newspaper reporter, made the following statement regarding Fred Beell: "You have a wrestler in Wisconsin, Fred Beell, who is going to be heard from. Since he threw Tom Jenkins some weeks ago, the Fox Gazette has decided to back him against any one in the world. Frank Hackensmith, the 'Russian Lion', not excepted."

Historical Lectures.

A series of historical lectures by Prof. Charles W. Seymour will be given under the auspices of the Lincoln high school. Prof. Seymour is one of the most effective and pleasing lecturers in his line in this country. He has given courses in nearly all the larger high schools in the state as well as in the normal schools and colleges. He is now giving courses in Whitewater, Milwaukee, Wausau and in a number of other cities in Wisconsin.

The first lecture will be given Friday afternoon, Dec. 1st, at 3 p. m. in the Lincoln high school. The subject of the lecture will be Frederic the Great. This lecture is given without charge by Prof. Seymour and no admission fee will be charged. The public is cordially invited.

The four lectures of the course will be given on the evenings of Dec. 7, 14, 21, and Jan. 5th. They will be held in the Lincoln building. The subjects will be Julius Caesar, Herod, the Kings of the Jews, Jeanne d'Arc, and Queen Elizabeth.

Tickets for the entire course will be sold at $1.00. Single admissions, adults 85 cents, children and students 75 cents.

It is thru the co-operation of the Woman's clubs of the city that it is possible for the school to have this course of lectures. It is hoped that it will receive general support. If any profit is realized on the course it will be used for the benefit of the schools.

Hick's Almanac No More.

Those persons who have been in the habit of buying a Hick's almanac about the first of January and then timing all of their doings during the year by the prognostications laid down in this book will be disappointed hereafter, as the publication of the book has been discontinued. Hick's continues to publish his paper, however, which tells what the weather will be for a month ahead but this will not fill the bill like the almanac did. It was the first of January and look down on it and see just what kind of weather there is going to be on the Fourth of July and other important days of the year.

These fake long range weather predictions are rapidly going out of style. Even some of the medicine almanacs have dropped the old fashioned plan and now state that it is impossible to foretell the weather with any accuracy more than a day or two in advance and the best that can be done is to give an average of what has happened for a number of years past.

SERVE INJUNCTION.

City Attorney Instructed to Prevent County Clerk From Apportioning Taxes

A meeting of the aldermen and supervisors of the city of Grand Rapids was held at the city hall on Monday evening at the purpose of discussing the action of the county board in deciding that the cities of the county should assist in the work of building bridges in the different towns of the county.

After considerable discussion a resolution was passed by the city fathers, which was as follows: "That the city be and is hereby instructed to bring an action to restrain the County Clerk from charging up in his county apportionment of the county tax for bridges the part apportioned against the city of Grand Rapids."

For a good many years in Wood county the cost of building and maintaining bridges in the towns has been borne by the county at large, thus bringing a portion of the cost on the cities and villages in the county. This would have been all right had the towns stood their share of the expense when it was necessary to build a bridge in one of the cities, but this they refused to do. This city has had to build and maintain its own bridge with very little help from the county at large. It would also be a nice thing for the village of Nekosco to have a bridge across the Wisconsin river, but if it were proposed by the officers of that town to build such a bridge at the expense of the county it would cause trouble right away with the supervisors from the towns.

When the county board was in session this matter was discussed and voted upon. The members of the board from the towns knew that it was not right and yet they voted for the measure. If their action so works out that it will cause trouble and expense to the county and the taxpayers in general, they have nobody to thank but themselves.

Honesty is not only the best policy, but it is becoming the only policy that people will stand for now. There was a time when men would say any kind of legislation was good, but it seems that times have changed, and it is hoped that the city of Grand Rapids will be able to get into the new place by the middle of December. The building is certainly a very handsome one and is a great improvement to the appearance of the business portion of the east side.

The city of Marshfield, city of Pittsville and village of Nekosco and Port Edwards have also appointed committees to look after their interests in the matter. Marshfield has no stream of water within several miles of the city, and the people up there do not care to build any more bridges than is absolutely necessary.

The Second Entertainment.

The Cleveland Ladies Orchestra will appear at the opera house on Tuesday evening, Dec. 5th. This is the second entertainment of the series that is being given this winter by the entertainment course, and it is a first class number in every respect. The orchestra contains ten members, and the music handled by it is such as is seldom heard in our city. For lovers of music this concert will be a treat that should not be missed.

Musical Services.

A Special Musical Program will be given in the G. A. R. Hall under the direction of Mr. Clinton R. Sealock, Singing Evangelist, Thursday Evening.

This will be a sacred Concert given as a part of the special Evangelistic Meetings now in progress under the auspices of the First Church of Christ—Everything is free—and you are cordially invited to be present at all the services. The subject of the sermon on Thursday evening will be "The Heavenly Vision." Friday evening "Naaman." Saturday Evening, "The Progress of Grace." Sunday morning "Glowing in Grace." Sunday Evening A Chart Lecture will be given entitled "The Church in the New Testament." Chas. Wm. Dean, Minister First Church of Christ.

Anderson-Laramie.

On Tuesday morning at the residence of Rev. R. Huguenot occurred the marriage of Miss Isabelle Laramie to Mr. Allen Anderson of Rimehand, Iowa. The ceremony was performed by Rev. R. Huguenot, Mr. Miller was best man and Ben Sweet acted as host man. After the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents, and the same evening the happy couple left for Rimehand where they will make their home.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Laramie, and has lived in this city all her life. For a number of years past she has been employed in the office of the Wood County Telephone Co. as operator, being one of the most faithful and reliable employees of the company. The groom formerly worked in this city as a laborer for the telephone company, but left here some time ago to engage in business at Rimehand. The young people have a host of friends here who will wish them a long life of wedded happiness.

Roller Skating Soon.

Manager Skating of the open house reports that he has completed all the arrangements so that he will be able to open the roller rink some time next week. He cannot state the exact day at the present time, as he has not received the skates as yet, but expects them in time so that the opening can be held some time the first part of the week. He has ordered ball bearing, rubber tired skates, something that is right up to date. Watch for the announcement of the opening and do not fail to be present.

Building About Completed.

The First National Bank building is about completed. Contractor Hallmore having about finished his work on the structure and it is the hope of those interested in it that they will be able to go into the new place by the middle of December. The building is certainly a very handsome one and is a great improvement to the appearance of the business portion of the east side.

New Guild Officers.

The members of St. Catherine's Guild met at the home of Mrs. J. P. Witter on Saturday and held their annual election of officers. Saturday being St. Catherine's day. The officers were Mrs. W. F. Kellogg, president, and Mrs. C. L. Han, vice president, and Mrs. C. L. Han, secretary and treasurer. During the past year this society has earned over $1000, which is certainly doing very well.

Got Ten Years.

Mrs. Minnie Kromb, the Stevens Point woman who pleaded guilty to the charge of assault with intent to kill, was last week sentenced to ten years in the penitentiary by Judge Webb. The sentence came as a surprise to the woman and her friends, who had expected that she would receive a sentence of about five years for her offense.

Will Start December 10th.

The F. MacKinnon Manufacturing Co. expect to start up their plant on the 10th of December. The wagon factory, which has been closed down while some changes were being made, will also be started up at that time. The company has contracted for a large amount of timber for the coming season, enough to keep it in operation during the entire year.

Tonic

THOS. J. BROOKS

Louisville, Ky., May 24, 1905.

Gentlemen:

Allow me to say a word endorsing the remarkable merits of your Rexall "93" Hair Tonic.

My attention was called to this remedy by one of your clerks, who guaranteed beyond question it would stop my hair falling out, and also put my scalp in healthy condition for new hair.

I hand you photograph before starting to use it, which shows me to be nearly bald. After using two bottles I saw decided improvement, so continued its use. I have used seven 50-cent bottles, and have a heavier suit of hair than I ever had in my life.

I also enclose photograph taken a few weeks ago, showing the wonderful results in a short time.

I take great pleasure in making this statement to you, gentlemen, endorsing your great Rexall "93" Hair Tonic, and will answer promptly all inquiries regarding it.

I am at present special agent of the Western and Southern Insurance Company, 21-23 Courier-Journal Office Building, this city.

Very respectfully,

Thos. J. Brooks

"This is a remarkable case—an exception to the rule. We do not promise that '93' will grow hair on every bald head—but we do guarantee, because we know, that it will stop falling hair, cure dandruff, and give satisfaction to anyone needing a hair dressing. If it doesn't, bring back the bottle, and we'll refund the 50 cents you pay for it."

PLAN FOR LOCK CANAL IN PANAMA

Diagram showing how some engineers proposed to construct the Panama canal. The different elevations are at various points along the route, and the locks and gates are shown in detail.

CANAL MAY BE OF LOCK TYPE.
Commission Said to Be Opposed to Sea Level Proposition.

Anticipating an announcement is made that the isthmian canal commission will recommend to the President that a lock canal be constructed across the isthmus of Panama.

This recommendation is opposed to that of a majority of the board of consulting engineers, which voted in favor of the sea level type, and will support the view expressed by a minority of the board. The commission will not prepare its report until it has had a chance to examine the reasons for the recommendation of the majority and minority of the board in advocacy of the type of canal they respectively recommend.

Gen. Davis, chairman of the board, said the majority of the board will be presented within three weeks. If the commission unanimously recommends a lock canal this will be in accordance with the inference which has been drawn from a statement made a few weeks ago from the White house, that before the President would approve of a sea level type he would have to be convinced it was the best in respect of engineering, time and cost.

The Comanches, the Cheyennes and the Kiowas were on the war path and the border was a red trail all along the borders of western Kansas. General Miles, then colonel, Nelson A. It is said that stammerers rarely, if ever, show any impediment of speech when speaking in whispers. A new method of treatment has therefore been advocated, which is as follows: For the first ten days speaking is prohibited. During the next ten days speaking is permissible in a whispering voice, and in the course of the next fortnight the ordinary conversational tone may be gradually employed.

Mexican Family of Bell Ringers Live Far Above Common Workday World

(Special Correspondence.)
So far above the pavement that those who walk in and out among the hundreds of passing vehicles appear like creeping insects, and so high that the ordinary passerby of the city reach upward only as a confused murmur, lives the family that has the distinction of being the most elevated in Mexico's capital.

The home of this family is high up in the eastern tower of the cathedral, and there among the bells that for centuries have called the faithful to the services of the church, this family has lived for years, and there is every indication that the tower will be every home for many years to come.

Two years ago Manuel Brena, the head of this family, died, and now his widow, Luisa de la Brena, assisted by her three sons and her daughter, look after the ringing of the bells and caring for the great clock that has marked time for so many years for the residents of that part of the city.

Brides have been led to the little home among the bells, and there have been many marriages and deaths many times have come to the occupants. It was more than 100 years ago that a man was placed in charge of the bells.
